Studio M Shines at Exclusive Book Signing for Nina Magon's EVOKE

Pasadena, CA – 11.3.23 – Studio M Lighting celebrated the release of Nina Magon's highly anticipated book, "EVOKE", by sponsoring an exclusive book signing at the premiere home furnishing showroom, Cozy Stylish Chic. The event featured a captivating discussion with Luxe Interior + Design's editor, Kelly Phillips Badal, which garnered a packed house of attendees.

"EVOKE" delves into Magon's personal journey, exploring how her passion for fashion and her globetrotting experiences have shaped her unique design style. The book also features several collaborative projects between Magon and Studio M Lighting, including the prestigious Kips Bay Show House, the Zadok Lounge in Houston, and an awe-inspiring art installation at Art Basel in Miami. As a testament to their close relationship and collaborative spirit, Studio M and Nina Magon have created nine remarkable lighting collections amassing critical acclaim and numerous design awards.

"We are thrilled to celebrate Nina and her achievements", says Naomi Sperling, COO of Studio M Lighting. "To have a partner that shares a passion for design and innovation, who pushes the envelope and thinks outside the box, we consider ourselves very lucky."

Studio M Lighting extends their heartfelt gratitude to Cozy Stylish Chic for graciously hosting the "EVOKE" book signing event. Cozy Stylish Chic, a leading luxury home furnishing showroom, offers a discerning clientele the opportunity to explore a curated selection of Nina Magon's collections as well as Studio M Lighting's exceptional range of collections.
